

Shari and Bill-

As you go always remember that you take with you our love and good wishes.

May you never lose your connection to your Friends/friends in Klamath Falls.

May you feel us holding you in the light.

May there be a strong shield between you and harm as you travel.

May your helpfulness and generous natures bless those you meet as they have blessed us.

May your journey grant the unheard a chance to tell their stories.

May you find welcome wherever you travel.

May you always find fast and hassle-free Internet connections.

May you learn and grow so that you are not the same people at the end of your journey as you were at the beginning.

May you find that which you seek.

Bill, may you continue to see the world with your unique vision and be able to capture that in photographs and poetry.

Shari, may you never run out of books to read or yarn to fashion, and may your supply of chocolate never run dry.
